Dear Parent,

Happy St Patrick's Day!

Well done and a HUGE congratulations to the Y5 girls for a successful bake sale last Friday. Your support and generosity raised an amazing £180.36 for Alder Hey Children's Hospital.

On Thursday, Year 2's Collective Worship reflected on how important water is in our everyday lives, how special it is and how it should be respected. Children retold the story of Jesus being baptised and explained that baptism is like being cleansed from the inside. Thank you to parents and grandparents for joining us – I'm sure they were just as proud of the children as we are!

Year 4 were lucky enough to attend the Commonwealth flag raising ceremony at Chester Town Hall on Monday – finished off with juice and biscuits with the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress; Year 5 and 6 took a trip to Hooks Wood on Thursday to support their maths learning and everyone had a fantastic Red Nose Day 2023. We raised an amazing £155.64!

Today's sponsored fitness circuit with GB athlete, Lauren Quigley, was a HUGE success! Everybody got stuck in and tried their absolute best - we got very out of breath! Lauren delivered an assembly which reminded us all about the importance of determination, perseverance and not giving up. We had the chance to ask questions and have all been very inspired to keep working towards our goal. Don't forget to bring in sponsorship forms and money next week.
