

Parent Communication Survey February 2022

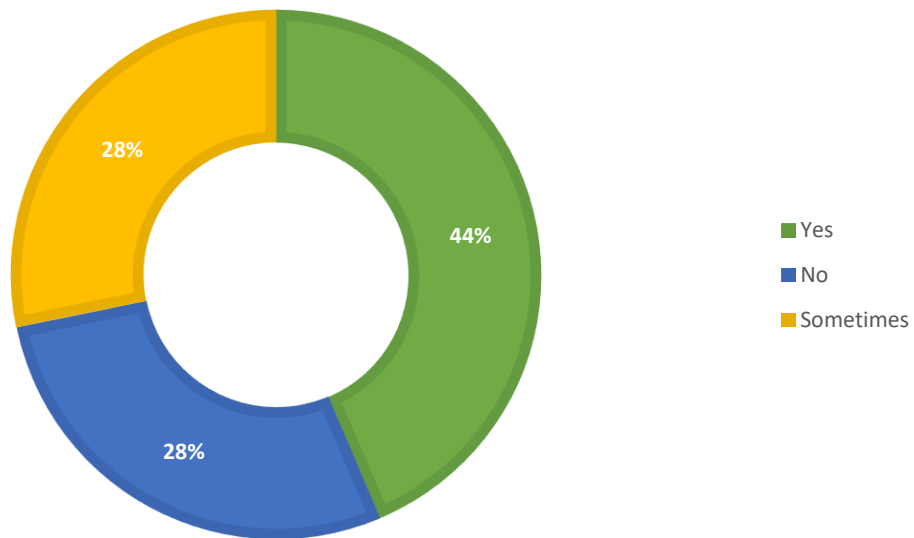

Since Covid-19, we have been reporting school news, events and what the children are doing in class in a variety of different ways. Do you find Facebook to be a sufficient means of communication?

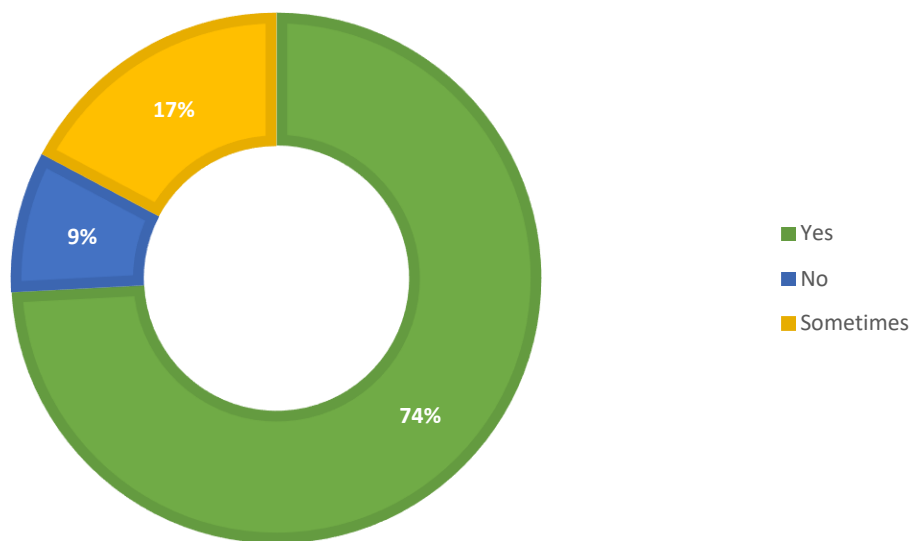

Since Covid-19, we have been reporting school news, events and what the children are doing in class in a variety of different ways. Do you find Headteacher letters to be a sufficient means of communication?

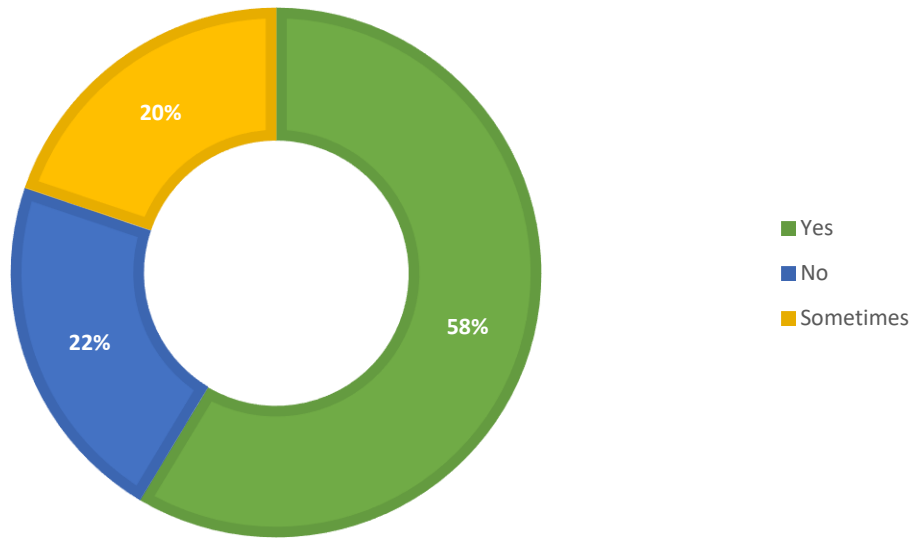

Since Covid-19, we have been reporting school news, events and what the children are doing in class in a variety of different ways. Do you find class discussions (formally known as Blogs) to be a sufficient means of communication?

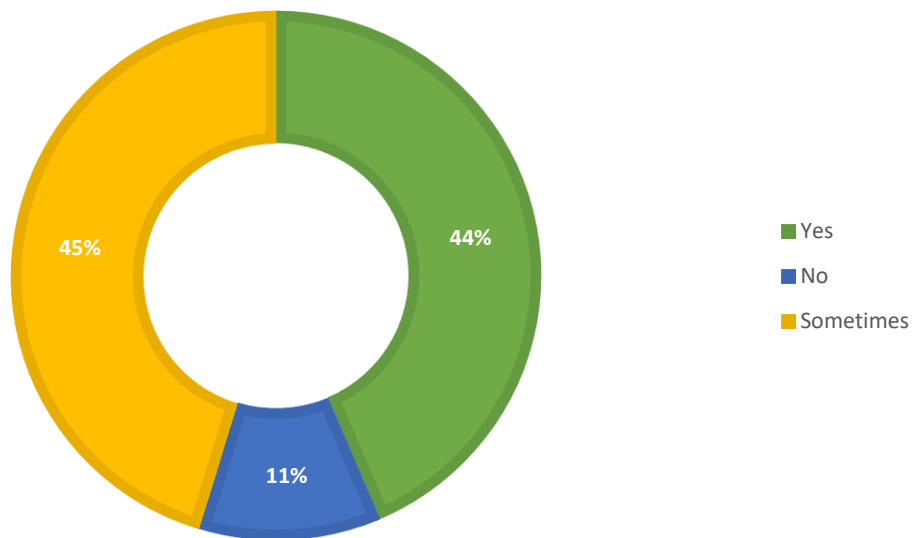

Since Covid-19, we have been reporting school news, events and what the children are doing in class in a variety of different ways. Do you find School Spider messages/notifications to be a sufficient means of communication?

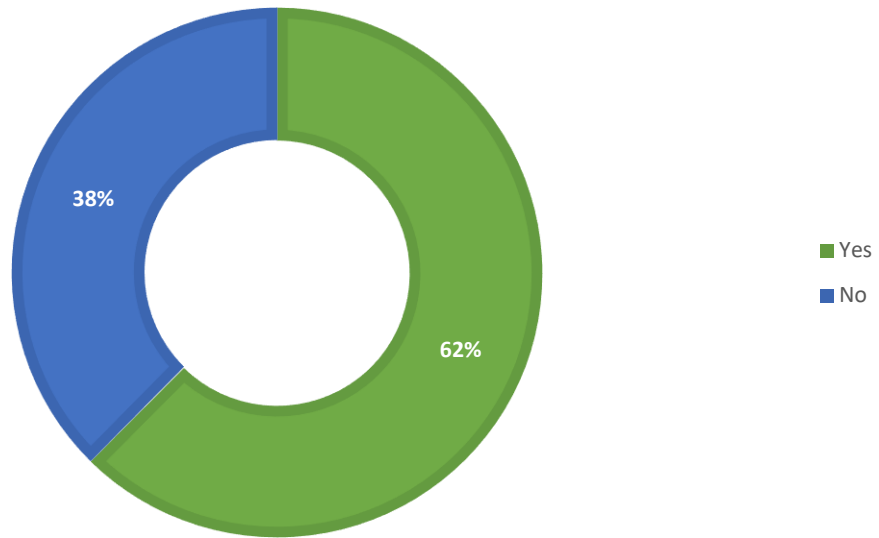

Do you use our Guilden Sutton Facebook page to follow our school news?

School Spider has been up and running since September. Do you find this system efficient/easy to use?

Would you prefer a half termly newsletter?

Do you enjoy instant notification of news, events and what the children are getting up to via our Facebook page?

